presents

Genealogy Brown Bag Lunch ZOOM Session

Where Did I Put That?

~How to organize your genealogical research~

with Eleanor Brinsko
from Carlon Genealogical Services, LLC

Friday, February 16
12-1 pm

This is a ZOOM session.

Visit the library website to access the Zoom link after February 9. You can also participate in the Zoom session at the library. The recorded video will be available for up to 30 days through our website.

The joy of finding genealogical treasures and evidence is the exciting part of building our family history narrative. But how do we know what we have? How can we keep the items safe? Eleanor Brinsko, of Carlon Genealogical Services, LLC, will guide the audience through organizing the evidence to make the information accessible and how to preserve the materials and information so it will last longer than a lifetime.
